*The Farmington
Student*

Class Book of 1960

Farmington High School

Farmington, Connecticut

Dedication

MR. RALPH D. McKAY

We respectfully dedicate this 1960 issue of the "Farmington Student" to the memory of Mr. Ralph D. McKay, who served six years on the Board of Education and gave so unselfishly of his time for the betterment of the Farmington Schools. "Friends depart but memory keeps them alive forever in our minds."

Our Sincere Thanks

MISS HELEN M. BUCKLEY

They helped plan our suppers and coached our play.
Time was no factor in their long day.
And for the success here, they helped us to reap,
May we express our gratitude deep.

MR. JOSEPH K. SONNTAG

To MR. JOHN E. GAISFORD, who was never too busy to lend a helping hand.

To MR. JOSEPH R. BURNS, for the time he spent in counselling us personally and in making possible
this edition of "The Farmington Student."

To our parents, for the many things they did and the many things they sacrificed to make our years in school so fruitful.

WALTER DAVID ASTON, JR.

*"A leader of men
but a follower of women"*

Conservation Club 2, 3, Vice-President 4; Football 2, 3, 4; Chefs' Club 2, 3, Varsity Club 3, 4; Fire Crew 2, 3, 4, Junior Defender of Wild Life 4; Senior Play.

Enjoys sporting in "Ag" classes — stalwart football player — recommends "Avon" products — quite a lover in our class play — should make a good power plant technician.

HARRIET LOUISE BARRY

"There is no music like gay chatter."

Minstrel 2, 3; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Dance Club 3; Fashion Show 2, 3, 4. Never at a loss for conversation and laughter — easy-going disposition — will never refuse to help — expects to operate a comptometer.

CARRIE MAY BAYETTE

"Be friendly and friends will come to you."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Minstrel 2, 3; Harvest Supper Committee 4; Dramatic Club Treasurer 3, 4; Student Council Representative 4; Executive Committee 3; Assistant Librarian 3, Junior Prom Committee; Initiation Dance Committee 4; Farmington Indian Princess 4; Typist for the "Farmington Student."

Our '59 pretty "Indian" princess — cheerful smile along with an amiable disposition — deliberating whether to stay on a farm or work in a bank.

BETSY B. BAYLES

"I can keep a secret, but the people I tell can't."

Dramatic Club 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Hilltop 4; Choral Club 4, Minstrel 3; Harvest Supper 4; Junior Class Supper; Junior Prom Committee; Picture Editor for the "Farmington Student."

Sparkling eyes plus a vivacious and happy-go-lucky disposition — likes sports and the color red — wants to be a buyer for Woolworth's.

THOMAS WILLIAM BEAUDIN

"Whatever is worth doing is worth doing well."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Chefs' Club 3; Student Council Representative 3; Class President 4; National Honor Society 3, President 4; Picture Editor of "The Farmington Student"; Track 2, 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee; Farmington Indians 4.

Our capable class president — loves working and eating at 3 Sons — arouses ire of girls by not attending parties — very good student with ambition leaning toward mechanical engineering — good luck, "Tom."

EDWARD BECKER, JR.

"Hear much, speak little."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4, Chefs' Club 4; Fire Crew 4.

Girls admire his red sweater — ready to dash out to a fire — has fun with particular friends — will wind up in the Navy.

HAROLD W. BEDER

"Someday I'll have a fling."

Football 2, 3; Track 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Foreign Policy Club 3, 4; Boys' State; Farmington Indian 4; Senior Play; Assistant Business Manager of "Farmington Student."

Industrious worker, conscientious at all times — enjoys clean-up committees and doughnut sessions — zooms around at twenty-five in black car — should make good undercover man for government

STEVEN EDWARD BIDSTRUP

"He may look innocent but don't be fooled."

Vice-President of class 3, 4; Secretary of Conservation Club 4; Baseball 2, 4; Track 3; Student Council 3, 4; Chefs' Club 3; Farmington Indian; Business Manager of "Farmington Student."

The energetic business manager of our classbook who secured so many ads — popular with the class — has a good scholastic record — will probably be our consulting physician someday.

THOMAS RICHARD BRONSON

"With life so short, why be serious!"

Basketball 2, 3, 4; Golf 2, 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Executive Committee 2, 3; Speakers' Bureau 3; Fire Crew 3, 4; Class President 2; Initiation Dance Committee 4; Varsity Club 2, 3, 4

One of the best golfers in the school — outstanding in basketball also — baby-blue eyes attract females — wife will enjoy his wit.

EILEEN F. BROWN

"Patience and gentleness are power."

Hockey 2, 3, 4; Conservation Club 3, 4; Minstrel 3; Outing Club 2, 3; Foreign Policy Club 4; All State Chorus 4 "Fairview Beacon" 4; Girls' Leader Corps 4; Laurel Camp Scholarship 3; Assistant Librarian 4; Assistant editor for the "Farmington Student."

Frequent visitor to Teachers College — a good cook — conscientious about her work — will make a sympathetic nurse.

SANDRA LILLIAN BROWN

"Speak less than thou knowest."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Foreign Policy Club 3, 4; Minstrel 3; Chairman of Club Committee; Junior and Senior Class Suppers; Senior Play; Assistant Editor of "Farmington Student."

Very much interested in Pilgrim Fellowship — sharp shooter on the rifle range — known for her interest and excellence in mathematics — will make a good pedagogue.

CATHERINE CECILY BUXTON

"I nearly split my sides laughing."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Chefs' Club, Assistant 4; Dramatic Club 3; Minstrel 2.

Possessing such humor, Cathie would laugh in church — enjoys those trips from "Howard Johnsons" — writes letters for a hobby — will probably work in an office.

FRANK A. CADWELL

"Fireman, save my child."

Rifle Club 2, 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Fire Team 3, 4; Rifle Team 3, 4. A quiet temperament — a firm believer in haste makes waste — spends time fishing in Vermont — will hang out a plumber's shingle

STEPHEN CAKE

"He speaks few but penetrating words."

Rifle Club 2, 3, Corresponding Secretary 4; Assistant Business Manager of "The Farmington Student"; Science Club 3; Laboratory Assistant 4; Library Assistant 4.

This taciturn man can tear a car down and put back all the pieces — browses much in the library — likes rifle range for recreation — success in mechanical engineering, "Steve."

SHIRLEY E. CALDER

"Laughter is a good beginning for a friendship."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4, Hilltop Club 4; Outing Club 3; Choral Club 3, 4; Senior Class Supper; Assistant Editor of "Farmington Student."

Enjoyed waiting on tables at Cape Cod — loves pajama parties — constantly with Diane — headed for Fisher for secretarial course.

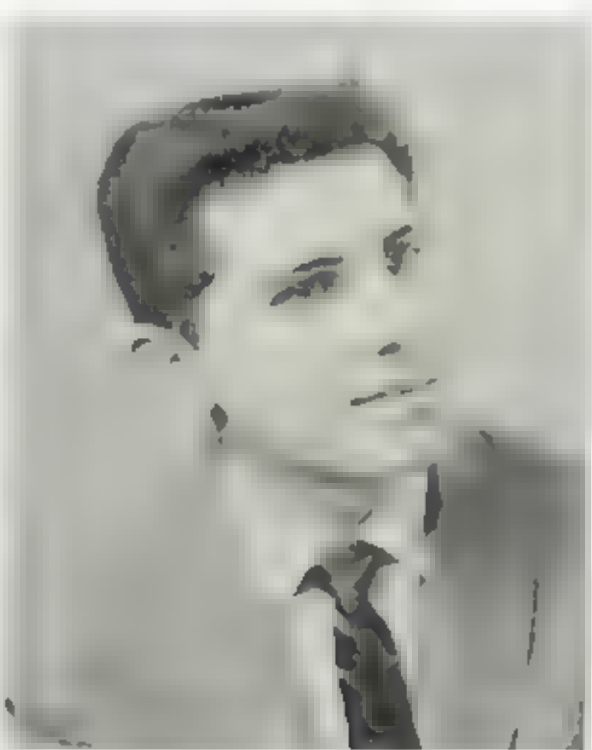

SANDRA JEAN A. CARLINA

"There's romance in the lakes and mountains"

Choral Club 2, 3; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Fashion Show 2, 3.

Lake Garda has many interesting things besides swimming and fishing — always humming "My Bill" from Shou boat — agreeable disposition will make her a pleasant companion.

MICHAEL E. CARROCCIA

"A rolling eye, a roaming heart."

Rifle Team 2, 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Sophomore Initiation Committee. Quite a soda jerk — prefers to wait upon girls from East Farms Section — seen dashing around in little black car — college is his ambition.

JOAN ANN CIERSKI

"By the sea, the beautiful sea."

Basketball 2, Manager 3, 4; Future Teachers' Club 3, Secretary-Treasurer 4; Outing Club 2; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Chairman, Junior Prom; Decor it on Chairman, Junior Class Supper Fair view Beacon" 4, Decoration Chairman, Sophomore Dance; Picture Editor, "Farmington Student."

Wouldn't miss a summer at Hammonasset — excellent choice of clothes to match blond hair and blue eyes — could sleep through an earthquake — should do well as an interior decorator.

CHRISTOPHER O. CODREY

*"So near to school
and yet so far away."*

Rifle Club, Vice-President 4; Rifle Team 3, 4; Fire Crew 3, Vice-President 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4

Possesses a mild disposition — willing to help — brought in a Christmas box that looked like a coffin — likes to shoot — understands much about cars — can you imagine him as a timekeeper!

CHARLES A. COOK, JR.

"I like all kinds of 'goodies.'"

Chefs' Club 2, 3; Initiation Dance Committee

Raids the refrigerator — candidate for cheerleader of the year — has an eye for the ladies — thinks Monday the best day of the week — renders cheerful service at Epicure

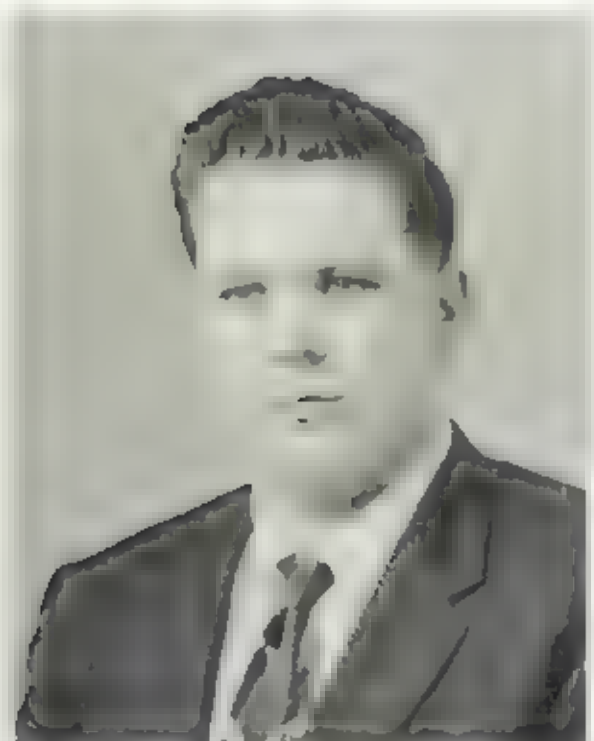

BARBARA JEAN CROSS

"Ease with dignity."

Most fond of Vermont scenery and pink bubbles — neat and stylish dresser — friendly personality — wants to be a laboratory technician.

JOHN A. CROWE

"A 'Crowe' without a cau"

Conservation Club 3, 4

Handy man in shop classes — never interferes with other people's business — good worker in all his endeavors — good luck, "Butch."

ROLAND CYR

"I can talk myself out of anything."

Rifle Club 2, 3, President 4; Choral Club 4, Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Rifle Team 3, 4; Varsity Club 3, 4

Influenced by Room 14 — says he enjoys "Coral" Club — good football player — wish him success in the Navy

RONALD FRANCIS DABKOWSKI

"A jester who laughs at his own jokes."

Most congenial to John and girls in underclasses — prominent in bass section of Choral Club — good basketball player — a Farmington "Indian" — will teach Spanish.

HARRISON C. DAGGETT

"I'm interested in all kinds of 'Chicks.'"

Chairman of Junior Defenders of Wildlife; Football Captain 2; Varsity Football 2, 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4, Varsity Club 2, 3, 4; Fire Crew.

Keen competitor in football — enjoys a good joke and murder stories — partial to the Juniors — hopes that there will be a fire crew at college.

DONNA DEMING

"A ready smile with a sparkling eye."

Dramatic Club 2; Cheerleader 2; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Choral Club 3, 4; Girls' Leader Corp 4; Assistant Chairman for Fashion Show 3; Committees for Harvest Supper and Junior Prom, Assistant Editor of "Farmington Student"

One of our most pleasant and agreeable members — takes an active part in school functions — solicited ads for our class-book — spends weekends at U. Conn. — success will be hers.

JOHN EDGAR DERICK

"Life is too short to waste a minute."

Student Council 2; Decoration Committee for Junior Prom 3.

No moments of inactivity for him — quiet and serious about his work — likes his employment at the Myrtle — girls admire that white Cadillac — attracted to electronics.

TIMOTHY A. DOBRATZ

"Conscientious efforts bring good results."

Spanish Club 4; Cross Country 4. Arrived senior year from Gilbert in Winsted — friendly in a quiet way participates in outdoor activities — interested in forestry and geology.

DAVID M. DREW

"He uses his wit in the most unexpected places."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Gun Club 2; Chefs' Club 3.

Has a king-size smile — never without a mouthful of Wrigley's favorite product — liked washing dishes in the cafeteria — hope he makes technical school.

SHIRLEY AGNES DROWN

Always laughing — steady correspondent with the United States Army — likes to participate in athletics — look for her in an insurance office next year.

ROGER H. DYMKOWSKI

"Life is just one big party."

Football 2.

The boy with so many new cars — gives West Hartford girls most rides — not quiet outside of school — hopes to make a name in business.

EDWARD W. EGE

"He uses his head in all kinds of ways."

Science Club 3; Chefs' Club 2.

Has contest with John Gaura each day to see who will enter home room first — one of our early birds — interested in unusual facts — thinks a chef should be a good scientist.

SUSAN ELIZABETH ELLSWORTH

"Follow your own path regardless of what others may say."

Conservation Club 2, 3; Future Nurses Club 3; Assistant to Chefs' Club 2, 4.

Where there's Cathie there's Sue — active in Pilgrim Fellowship — sews very well — most fond of a hearty laugh and a hearty meal.

JOHN ERHA

"His life is an even tenor."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Rifle Club 3.

Can be quite a boy when he forgets his taciturnity — attractive curly blond hair — knows how to handle a rifle — should be a good draftsman.

JEAN ERICKSON

"The coast is clear."

Dance Club 3; Dramatic Club 2; Conservation Club 2, 3; Fashion Show 2, 3, 4; Softball 4.

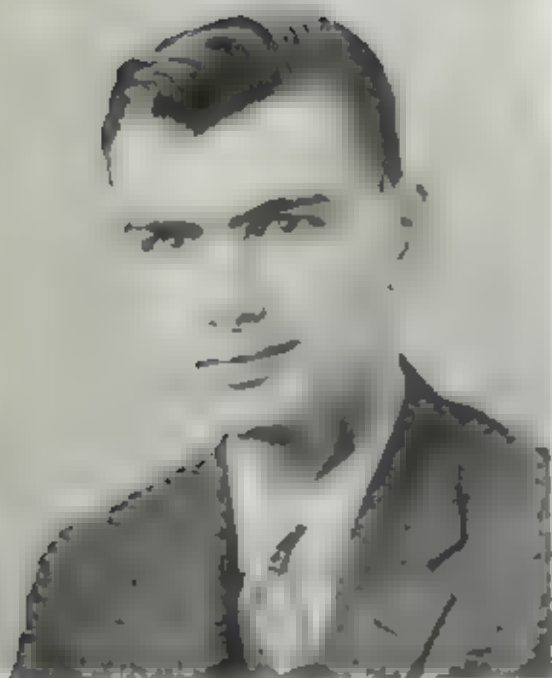

Seen most often in a black Ford — fond of playing in the snow — wraps packages very well — loves her pets — thinks bookkeeping is an interesting job

ROBERT CHARLES ERICKSON

"A patient man overcomes all difficulties."

We all admire his pluck — had quite an experience with the proofpress — can't convince us that all those telephone calls at noon are to his mother.

JOHN STUART ERKSON

"Every day is ladies' day with me."

Rifle Club 2, 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4.

Would rather work in the Myrtle than do homework — interested in a female clerk — one of our best magazine salesmen — looks forward to an Army career.

PATRICIA MARGARET ERKSON

Takes much pride in his car — frequents the golf course — would almost emulate Walter Raleigh — has led a very active school career — good luck in business administration.

ANNA SUSAN HARRIS

"A little nonsense now and then relieves boredom."

Hockey 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4; Softball 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4, Girls' Outing Club 3; Girls' Leader Corps 4. Her name is Anna-a-a — if it is a sport, she is interested — quick and witty remarks — can't describe that red hat — good luck to the last of the Harris sisters.

IRENE C. HEFFERNAN

"It was her thinking of others that made us think of her."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Student Council 3, Secretary 4; Hilltop 2, Treasurer 4; Junior and Senior Class Suppers; Junior Prom, Minstrel 3; Class Treasurer 4, Dance Club 3, Secretary and Treasurer; Picture Editor of "Farmington Student."

One of our most loyal students — interested in anything pertaining to school — has a beautiful blush, almost the same color as her favorite strawberries — collected all kinds of pictures for our book.

ARLENE MURIEL HEIN

"She meets the world with a smile."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Librarian 2; Dramatic Club 3; Minstrel 2, 3; Fashion Show 2, 3, 4

Likes Navy men but becomes embarrassed if we mention them — active in church work — probably will be found doing clerical work next year.

DIANE MAY HOLLINGER

"Happy is she who is content."

Hilltop Club 2, 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Ring Committee 3; Waitress for Junior Supper.

Good in her studies — minds her own business — likes her work at the Myrtle — add her to the list of potential secretaries.

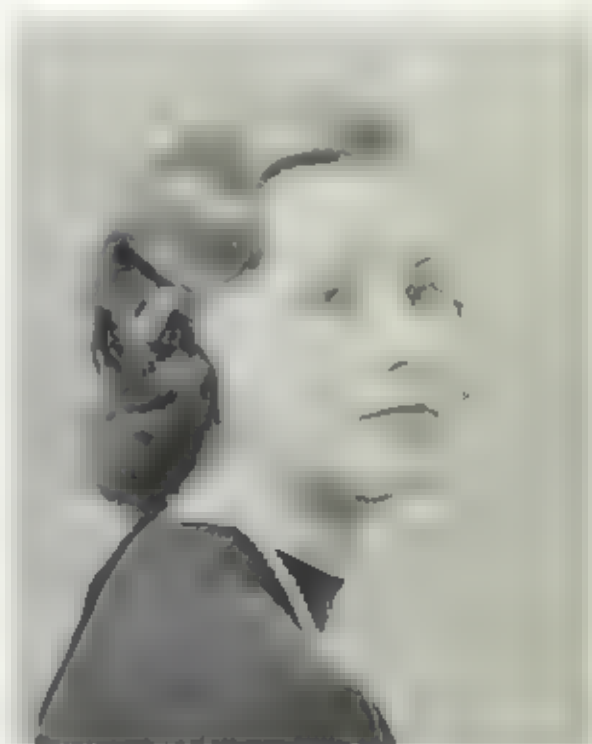

THEO CAROLE HUNTER

"Pleasure and action make the hours shorter."

Conservation Club 4.

A transfer from Framingham in Senior year — likes to munch while doing homework — will study to become a dental hygienist.

LORRAINE D. HURLEY

"Look how close that mantac in front of me is driving."

Conservation 2, 3, 4; Foreign Policy 4; Outing Club 2, Dance Club 3; Typist for the "Farmington Student."

A good worker whether she was typing or collecting ads — keeps up with the latest fashions in clothes — will make a good, friendly secretary.

EUNICE ELAINE JANSON

"Her modesty's a candle to her merit"

Senior Play; Junior and Senior Suppers; National Honor Society; Foreign Policy Club 2, Treasurer 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Basketball 2; "Fairview Beacon" 2, 3, 4; Minstrel 3; Science Club 3, 4; Assistant Editor of "Farmington Student."

A specialist in making baked Alaska — laughing eyes and a winning smile — her class averages always very high — will be thorough in research work.

PAMELA GAIL JAQUITH

"She doesn't even talk to herself"

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Minstrel Show 2, 3; Fashion Show 2, 3, 4; Hilltop Club 3

Shiny blond tresses — where there's Arlene there's "Pam," — most gentle in disposition — will not forget our alumni.

DAVID JOHN JENDREJCAK

"I waste no words on idle chatter"

Rifle Team 4, Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Rifle Club 2, 3, 4

Prefers Ford convertibles without female passengers — conservative with conservation — hopes to earn a college degree.

RUTH MAY JOHNSON

"She's not ruthless, she's 'POMG'."

Library Club President 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Softball Manager 2; Junior Executive Committee; Minstrel 2, 3; Library Assistant 2, 3, 4; Typist for the "Farmington Student."

Prominent alto in Choral Club — did a good job as library assistant — very fond of all kinds of skating — wonderful worker on a committee — should be successful in religious work.

RUTH ANN JONES

"A cheerful look makes a dish a feast."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Hilltop Club, Secretary 3, 4; Cheerleader 3

Quiet in school but not at P. J. parties — short and cute — belongs to Rainbow Girls — entices Granby trade to the Mill.

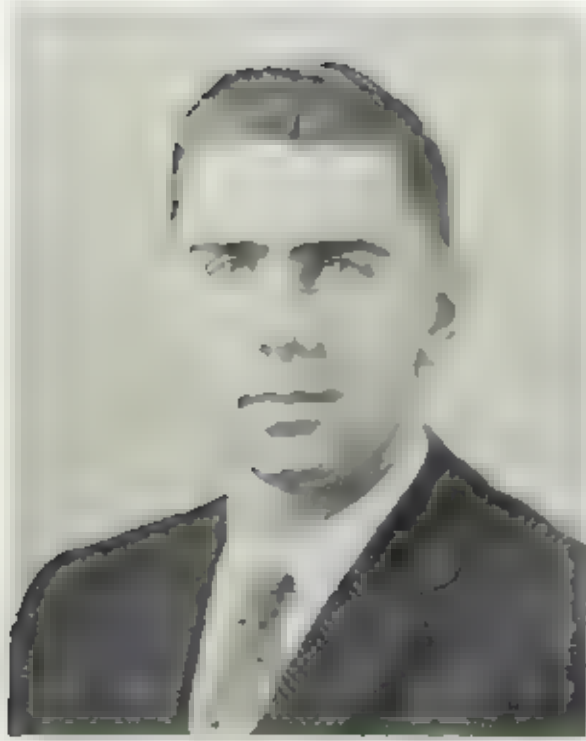

MARILYN F. JOYCE

"I can laugh and cry at the same time."

Cheerleader 2, 3, Minstrel 3; Senior Supper Committee; Junior Prom Committee; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Foreign Policy Association 4

Irish colleen with much personality — talent for getting into mischief — ardent cheerleader — wish her all the luck in Boston.

ARNOLD W. JUDD

"Women and music should never be dated"

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Rifle Club 2, 3, 4; Rifle Team 4, Captain; Varsity Track and Cross Country 4; Assistant Business Manager of "Farmington Student."

Active member of Explorer Scouts — likes the great outdoors — travels about in a black Chevy — hopes to get his wish to ski in the Alps.

ROBERT JOHN KANE

"He's no meteorologist but he's interested in a 'Gail'"

Football 2, 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Chefs Club 2, President 3; Varsity Club 1 Vice-President; Senior Class Representative

Very determined — enthusiastic about football — does not miss many school functions — enjoys working at the concessions because of the pretty girl customers — is headed for business

KATHLEEN KFEVERS

"A likeable girl with likeable ways"

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Dancing Club 2, 3

Is partial to blue station wagons — attractive cashier — blushes from head to toe — never refuses an invitation to a party — will click a typewriter next year.

MICHAEL J. KOPRUSAK

"A quiet person — except when otherwise"

Conservation Club 3; Band 2, 3, 4; Football 4.

Fascinated by an underclassman — interested in cars and hopes to be a truck driver — will make a good family man.

EMORY GEORGE KRISH

"A good disposition is a quality worth having."

Tops the list for taciturnity — well acquainted with art of weight lifting — enjoys roaming through the Burlington hills.

WILLIAM F. LAIRD

"I came, I winked, but she conquered."

Conservation Club 3, 4; Audio Visual 3, Vice-President

Successfully keeps one eye on the teacher while the other gazes out the window — the "Blue Jean" kid — fond of cars and tractors — wants to be a jet pilot.

DORTHA JOAN LARKIN

"A wink of her eyes and she has her way."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Foreign Policy Club 4; Junior Prom Committee; Assistant Editor of the "Farmington Student."

Unusual hobby of collecting stuffed animals — pretty long blonde hair — takes interest in many activities — good looking secretaries are in demand, "Dode."

SOPHIE LATKO

"A warm heart finds a true friend."

Basketball 2; Hilltop Club 2, 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3; Assistant Librarian 1

Is always prepared for classwork and written homework — inclined to be shy — interest in her work will make her a good bookkeeper.

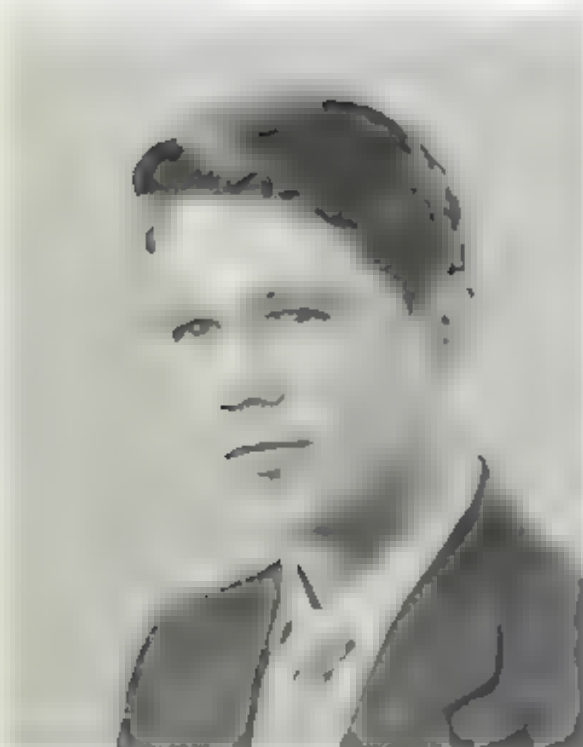

MARTIN ERNEST LAWRENCE

"If girls were tomatoes I'd have my pick."

Football 2, 3; Student Council 2; Dramatic Club 3; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Assistant Business Manager of "Farmington Student."

Enjoys parties where he can play with electric trains — has a devilish smile — very conscientious about homework — expect to see him a corporation lawyer.

FREDERICK LEE

"I am opposed to women on general principles."

Conservation Club 3, 4.

Will not win a prize for his verbosity — likes newspapers in study hall — has own private pond for fishing — is he really a misogynist?

ROSEMARY LEVANDOWSKI

"The world loves a pleasant smile."

Hockey 2, 4; Basketball 2, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leader Corps 4; Minstrel 3; Winter Carnival Attendant 3; Class Supper Committees 3, 4; Dramatics Club 4; Intramural Board 3; Senior Class Play; Assistant Editor of "Farmington Student."

Clever and determined — very active member of the class — athletically inclined — must save some of her daily time for writing letters — will make a pretty C. P. A.

LEE F. MAHANNAH

"Once a gentleman, always a gentleman."

Rifle Club 2, 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Rifle Team; Assistant Business Manager of "Farmington Student."

This senior with the wavy hair loves fishing and hunting — spends much time in Canton — finds blushing embarrassing — will be a good handy man.

ANNE ELIZABETH MARKS

"Enjoy when you can, endure when you must."

Foreign Policy Association, 3, 4; Outing Club 2; Softball 2; Field Hockey 2; Class Executive Committee 2, 3; Minstrel 2, 3; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee; Winner American Legion Oratorical Contest 3.

Likes excitement and clowning — life is tragic without a car — witty and generous — New York is fascinating — if we need a lawyer, Anne will be our counsellor.

HARLEY R. MARSHALL

"A good listener learns many things."

Basketball 2, 3, 4; Football 2, 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, President 4; Fire Crew 2, 3, 4; Art Club 2; Dance Club 3.

Don't get the impression that he is shy — quite handy in woodworking — will probably settle in dear old Vermont — we'll always remember the fifteen points scored in the last quarter of the Glastonbury game.

DIANE MATTHEWS

"Every girl has her devilish moments."

Conservation Club 3; Foreign Policy Association 4; Picture Editor of "Farmington Student."

Joined us in our junior year — tall and stately — has pin-on pony tail of her own hair — makes friends fast — nothing superior to a party.

MARY JANE McKISSICK

"I'm gonna jump right out of my shoes."

Dramatic Club 2, 3; Foreign Policy Club 4; Student Council 3, Reporter 4; Minstrel 3; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Cheerleader Junior Varsity 2, Varsity 3, Co-captain 4.

Our peppy cheerleader — fond of parties and social life — spends much time at the Myrtle and in bakeries — expect to see her a medical secretary.

ROBERT OWEN McMAHON

"Success is born of revolution."

Foreign Policy Club 2, President 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; "Fairview Beacon" 2; Librarian 4; Student Council 3, 4; Assistant Business Manager of "Farmington Student."

Takes an active interest in the Foreign Policy Association — keeps up with current events — a can-placement boy at First National — success cannot elude him.

ELAINE LOUISE MEYERS

"My garden is a little jewel — 14 carat."

Conservation Club 3, 4; Hilltop Club 3, 4, Reporter.

Arrived in our Junior year — cheerful smile wins her friends — take a bet that she becomes a housewife instead of a secretary.

HOWARD E. MILLER

"I take the world as I find it."

Conservation Club 4; Art Club 2.

Spends much time at the Mill — none of the fiery temper that sometimes accompanies red hair — likes to dabble in ceramics.

GEORGENE GAIL MOORE

"I'd rather be right than be President."

Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Library Club 4; Conservation Club 2, 3.

A studious girl — fastidious, especially about food — spends much time on the golf course — her debating ability seems to prognosticate success in law.

KATHLEEN MARIE MOORE

*"Today is the tomorrow
you worried about yesterday."*

Joined us from New Britain in Senior year — became immediately popular with the class — a friendly smile — a hit with a "Cook" — does not worry about speeding tickets.

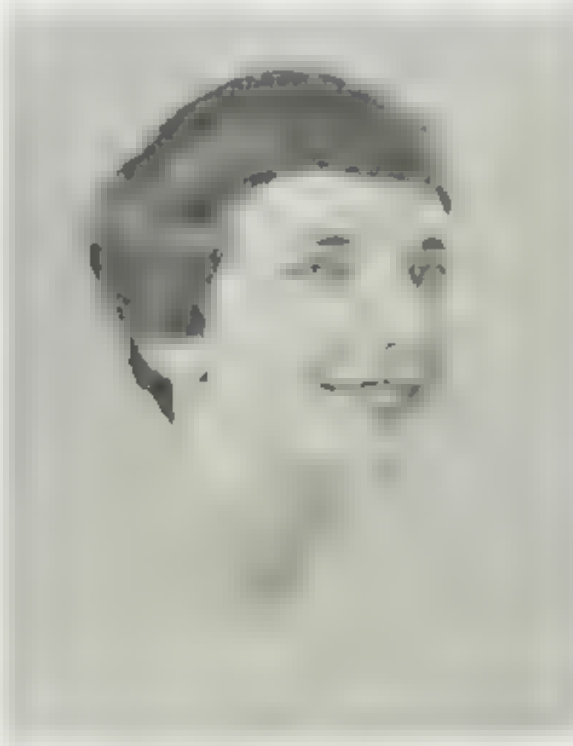

GEORGENE L. MUNTERICH

"What is a day without a few good giggles."

National Honor Society; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Conservation Club 4; Member of Set-up Committee for Senior Supper; Prompter for Senior Play; Typist of "Farmington Student."

Has a pretty blush and a winning smile — no blues in her company — has a high standing in her classes — wants to enroll at University of Bridgeport.

ANN LOUISE NIEDERER

"Just lead me to the not still 'Waters'."

Basketball 2, 3; Class Secretary 2, 3, 4; National Honor Society; Student Council 2; "Fairview Beacon" 3; Senior Play; Spanish Club 4; Laurel Girls' State; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Assistant Editor of "Farmington Student."

"Louise" would make a good model — has beautiful clothes — a good class secretary — deserts her girl friends between classes — will make a useful citizen.

LYNNE KAREN NIEDMANN

"Only a sneeze or a cough can check her laughter."

Senior Play Prompter; Dance Club 3; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Art Club 2, 3; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Assistant Librarian 2; Secretary of Dramatic Club 4; Art Editor of "Farmington Student." Lively personality — has a penchant for golf — splendid example of her art work in cartoons of our book — we see great success for her as a commercial artist.

IRENE C. NOE

"Have you heard this one?"

Basketball 2, Manager 3, 4; Ring Committee 2; Future Teachers 2; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Entertainment Committee Chairman for Junior Prom; Librarian 3; Dance Club 2.

Another devotee of the summer, the sea shore, and the Marines — something attractive about West Hartford — would settle for a job of executive secretary.

PENELOPE HILLS PASCUS

"Song and mischief fill her day."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Basketball 2, Dramatic Club 3; Minstrel 2, 3; All-State 3, 4; Laurel Music Camp 3, 4; Foreign Policy Club 4

White lipstick is certainly different — has sweet singing voice — is quite an equestrienne — future nurses must have a social life, too

PHYLLIS ANN PETERSON

Sweet personality full of rascality."

Varsity Basketball 2; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Minstrel 3; Girls' Outing Club 2; Future Nurses' Club, Vice-President 3 Foreign Policy Association 4; Hockey Manager 3, 4; Senior Play; Assistant Editor of "Farmington Student."

Good-natured and unperturbed — spends hours listening to Kingston Trio — enjoys black coffee and trips to New York — should become an agreeable retailer.

WILLIAM BLAIR POLLOCK

"I come to bury 'Caesar,' not to praise it."

Football 2, 3, 4; Track 3, 4; Varsity Club President 3; Fire Crew; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Senior Play; Assistant Business Manager "Farmington Student."

Keen competition on football field — frequent outbursts of humor — greatest interest lies in sports and coaching or a career in the Army

JUDITH MARIE REPPERGER

"All the world loves a good sport."

Future Teachers' Club 3, President 4, Girls' Leader Corps 4; Field Hockey 2, 3; Basketball 3; Foreign Policy 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 2; Assistant Editor of the "Farmington Student."

Nothing like a good time and parties — devilish gleam in her eye — hopes to go South next year — will give her pupils an example of a quiet, efficient personality.

CHARLES M. RICCARDO

*"I'll sit down now,
but you'll hear from me later."*

Science Club 3; Co-chairman of Junior Prom.

Likes a good argument — most at home in physics laboratory — television tubes and car radios fascinate him — diamonds look splendid on girls' fingers.

ROBERT ROBOTHAM

"I came, I saw, I left."

Student Council 2; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Class Vice-President 2; Chefs' Club 3; Dance Club 2; Class Executive Committee 2, 3.

A red head with freckles — found at the Epicure after school — fond of skiing — draftsmen usually drive a Cadillac.

PATRICIA ANN ROSATI

"The industrious aim for quality."

Class Treasurer 2; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Hockey 2, 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Co-Captain; Outing Club, Vice-President 3; Girls' Leader Corps, President 4; Winter Carnival Attendant 3; "Fairview Beacon" 3; Assistant Editor of "Farmington Student."

Always the same in mood — never find her enraged — her friends total many — her interest in athletics will make her popular with her students.

PATRICIA ANNE ROUTHIER

"Industry is the parent of success."

Foreign Policy Association 2, Secretary 3, 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; "Fairview Beacon" Assistant Editor 2, Editor-in-chief 3, 4; Field Hockey 3; Laurel Girls' State; Magazine Campaign Chairman 4; DAR Award Recipient; Parade of Youth Correspondent; Editor-in-chief of the "Farmington Student."

A delightful combination of charm, personality, and intelligence — our editor-in-chief found things "peachy" — very cooperative and a most willing worker — a student that any college will be glad to welcome

ARLENE MARY ROYKO

*"Gentle in method;
strong in performance."*

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Foreign Policy 4; Dance Club 2, 3; Class Suppers 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee; Initiation Dance Committee 4; Typist for the "Farmington Student."

One of our best dancers — knits beautiful sweaters — puts her heart into everything she does — spent many hours typing for our yearbook — will make an excellent medical secretary.

JEAN ELSA RULF

"If you don't scale the mountain, you can't view the plain."

Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Executive Committee 3; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 3, 4, Vice-President; Science Club 3; American Legion Oratorical Contest 3; Senior Play; Minstrel 2, 3; Assistant Editor of "Farmington Student."

Participates in many activities — most fond of class plays — gives a good account of herself in classes — should make a neat designer.

ANNE MARIE SCHEIDEL

*"Eat and be merry,
for tomorrow we die."*

Hockey 2, 3, 4; Softball 2; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 2; Future Nurses 3, 4, President; All-State Chorus 3, 4; Laurel Music Camp 2, 3, 4; Minstrel 2, 3; Senior Class Supper Committee, Hostess; Senior Class Play; Class Executive Committee 3, 4; Picture Editor of the "Farmington Student."

Our singing senior — lucky and interested in everything — can take a joke — never refuses to serve on a Committee — will have her patients in stitches (laughter we mean).

PATRICIA ANN SCHEIDEL

"She lives a date-to-date existence."

Senior Class Play; Dramatic Club 2, 3; Foreign Policy 4; Typist for "Fairview Beacon" 4; Secretary of Library Club 3, 4; Library Assistant 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leader Corp 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Assistant Editor of "Farmington Student."

A very complaisant classmate who best describes her social life as "Terrific — what a riot!" — recognized by her hearty laugh — will be a buyer of fashions.

STANLEY T. SEKULA

"Every man should think for himself."

Senior Play; Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Conservation 2, 3, 4; Fairview Beacon 2, 3; Assistant Business Manager of the "Farmington Student."

Loves confusing the teachers and himself — lends his pleasing voice to many choral selections — an ambitious young man bound to go far as an electronic engineer.

THOMAS PHILIP SEKULA

"The tortoise won the race."

Dramatic Club 2.

Very serious and quiet boy — plays basketball on C.Y.O. team — interested in skin-diving — hope he gets his wish to fly a plane.

MARY JANE SHIRLEY

"She gets a kick out of being mischievous."

Conservation Club 2; Future Teachers Association 3; Minstrel 2.

Enjoys early morning walks to school — prefers teachers to students — very much interested in operating I.B.M. machines — still believes in "Santa Claus."

DONALD LAWRENCE SMITH

"Things forbidden have a secret charm."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Chefs' Club 2, 3; Rifle Club 3.

Has short curly hair — enjoys playing with mice — had an important extra-curricular activity in senior year — will make a career in the Navy.

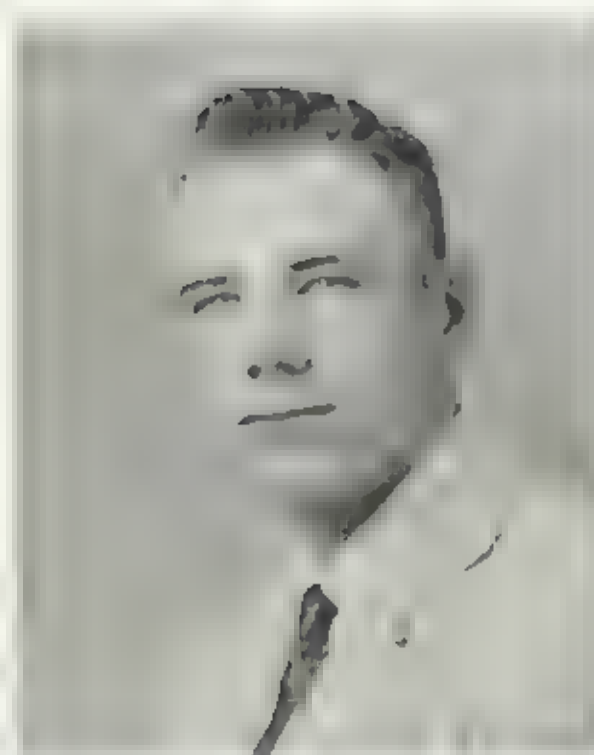

JOHN JOSEPH SMOLEN

"Time spent on books should be devoted to sports."

Baseball Team 2, 3, 4; Basketball Team 2, 3, 4; Member of Executive Board 3; Reporter of Conservation Club 3; Representative of Student Council 3; Member of Varsity Club 2, 3; Farmington Indian 4.

Our star basketball and baseball player — always the life of the party — nothing meager about his glibness — we'll look for him in the big league soon.

LAWRENCE E. SNOW

"Snow again. I don't get the drift"

Archery Club 2; Stamp Club 3.

Enjoys driving and bowling — visits Plainville and New Britain frequently — had his picture on the school bus — will be a physical education or history teacher.

KARIN THOMPSON SPERRY

*"Though vanquished
she could argue still"*

Dramatic Club 3; Foreign Policy Association 4; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Hockey 3, 4; Basketball 4; Softball 4; Minstrel 3; Typist of "Farmington Student"

Very fine musician and accompanist — ready for fun and mischief — her green Chevy a familiar sight in parking lot — will teach either music or history.

GILBERT S. STEARNS, JR.

*"Though he likes parties
he's no one 'party' man."*

Baseball 3; Basketball 3; Conservation Club 3, 4; Chefs' Club 4; Turkey Shoot 3, 4; Senior Supper.

Came to us from Vermont in junior year — stylish dresser — keeps statistics at basketball games — ought to be a good cook.

HENRY P. STEWART

"A quiet worker is the best worker."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Key man backstage helping with lights and properties — never seems to become excited — will have a chance to visit all the ladies when he becomes a salesman.

BARBARA J. STOCKWELL

"Just a little better than the average bear."

Dramatic Club 3; Minstrel 3; Conservation Club 3, 4; Choral Club 4; Foreign Policy Club 4.

Beautiful and very expressive eyes — star acrobat in the minstrel — toots along in her little "beetle" — like her car, she's going places.

MARY ANN SZYDLO

"Eyes can speak and eyes can tell."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 2, 3, President 4; "Fairview Beacon" 3, 4; Honor Society, Student Council 3; Choral Club 2, 4; Senior Play; Minstrel 2, 3; Assistant Editor of the "Farmington Student."

Our dramatic Burlingtonite — does push-ups at midnight — has a big wardrobe — listens all the time to "Kingston Trio" — had outstanding character role in senior play; should be a good model for her Home Economics classes.

JANICE C. TERWILLIGER

"Short and sweet, cute and neat."

Conservation Club 2, 3; Dance Club 2, 3.

Has curliest hair in senior class — pleasant companion — is liked by customers at First National — finger on left hand sparkles — our congratulations, "Jan."

ERICK B. THARAU

"A blush doesn't show in the dark"

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Chefs' Club 3, 4.

A noon hour devotee of the telephone booth — quiet but full of fun when he gets going — watch for the "Tharau Trucking Business."

HELEN JANE THISTLETHWAITE

"She silently goes her own way."

Conservation Club 2; Hilltop Club 2; Photography Club 4; Future Nurses 3; Fashion Show 2, 3, 4.

Has no trouble seeing in a crowd — gave up curls for senior pictures — does assigned tasks well — will be a long distance operator.

LINDA JENNIE TIBBETTS

"She got lost on Blueberry Hill."

Hilltop Club 2, 3; Conservation Club 3. Spends much time reading and taking walks — is a redhead but has a calm temper — will remember her P.O.D. classes — will join the Travelers Insurance Company.

JOHN H. TIMBRELL, JR.

"It's 'Ford' all the way."

Rifle Club 4; Conservation Club 4; Chefs' Club 2; Model Club 2, 3.

Has blond hair — argues much with Jeff — would like a career in the Navy or Merchant Marine.

PETER J. VERNESONI

"Though he is good at archery, he's no Cupid."

Conservation Club 3, 4; Chefs' Club 4. Rifles and bows and arrows delight him — Coast Guard enthalls him — a good customer of Sears' — feels drawn to Burlington girls.

ROBERT VIBERT

"I was a Boy Scout until I became a Girl Scout"

Football 2, 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3; Track 3, Varsity Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4, Conservation Club 2, 3, 4, I. A. Club 2; Senior Play.

Zealous member of the football squad — host of girl friends on sidelines cheering him — believes in a good time — we wish him luck in Stamford next fall.

THERESA A. VONTELL

"A mighty athlete was she."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Hockey 2, 3, 4; Softball 2, 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Fashion Show 4; Nurses' Club 3, 4

A quiet and serious senior concentrating on athletics — has won her letter in all sports — her choices, an airline hostess or a secretary.

RITA DOLORES WASHBURN

"Laughing, talking, and fond of fun."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Art Club 3; Assistant Librarian 4.

Very accurate in ringing up sales — can see a joke in everything — ardent Elvis Presley fan — has large selection of records — hopes to become a secretary.

NELSON D. WATERS

*"What good is it
when you are outtalked."*

Basketball 2, 3, 4; Conservation 2, 3, 4. Eighth in the family line but not the least — has a pass for every study hall — knows much about cars — his curly hair has a feminine admirer.

JEAN ADELE WESTERBERG

"Mirth admit me of thy crew."

Cheerleader 3, 4, Co-Captain; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 2; Science Club 3, 4; Foreign Policy Club 3, 4; Senior Play; Minstrel 3; Student Council 4; Assistant Editor of "Farmington Student."

This co-captain of the cheerleaders an outstanding student — likes sports especially those with male contestants — will not miss summer camp and a good time — capability will make her ambition a reality.

BEVERLY JEAN WHITNEY

"She wears the rose of youth upon her."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; "Fairview Beacon" 4; Dramatic Club 2; Foreign Policy Club 4; Hilltop Club 3, 4; Minstrel 2, 3; Library Club 3, 4; Assistant Editor of "Farmington Student."

Stays late after school working on class book and "Fairview Beacon" — very clever in making own clothes — hopes to make career either in journalism or in teaching foreign languages.

RICHARD EDWARD WIELLETTE

"A mild manner and a determined spirit."

Photography Club 4.

Fond of physics and advanced mathematics — silence is golden — works in camera shop after school — his goal is to be an electronic engineer.

ROGER T. WILBUR

"Cupid kills some with arrows, others with traps."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Dance Club 2, 3; Band 2, 3, 4; 1960 Hartford Courant Letterhead Contest 4.

Has never lost his Maine accent — entertains his girl by playing the guitar — will be in the crow's nest next year.

STANLEY F. WILUSZ

"In the good old summer time."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Rifle 2, 3; Senior Class Supper.

Seldom off the boat during the summer — settles for a Chevy in the winter — known for his blush and hearty laugh — should make a good technician of some sort.

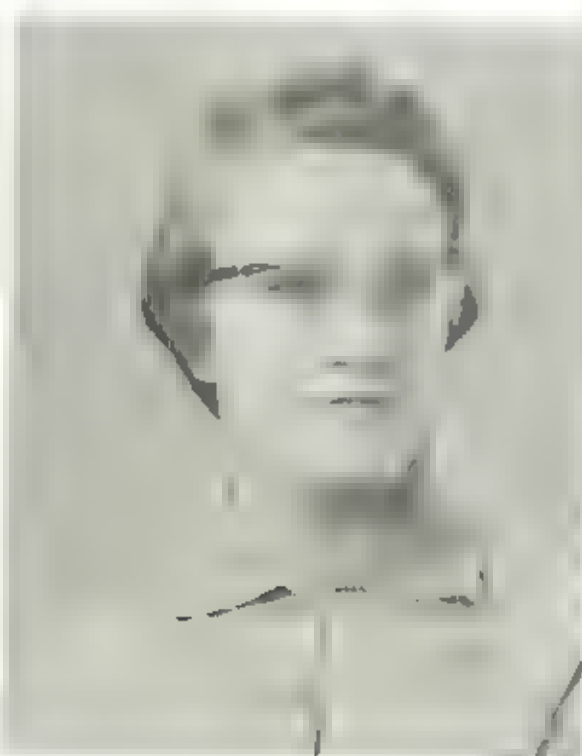

RAYMOND J. WINALSKI

"The industrious man keeps out of mischief."

Basketball 2; Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Student Council 3; Chefs' Club 3, 4.

Talks incessantly of his summer at the shore — never misses a day on the job — drives an attractive convertible — look out, he will investigate you next year.

CYNTHIA MARIE WOLFE

"When she's around, you can hear a pin drop."

Conservation Club 2, 3; Hilltop Club 2, 3; Assistant Librarian 2, 3.

Very fond of business courses, especially office practice — quiet, neat, and determined about her work — will make a steady secretary.

RICHARD L. WRIGHT

"Industrious, sincere and possessing a host of friends."

Executive Committee 3; Assistant Business Manager of the "Farmington Student."

Keeps in good physical condition by peddling papers — of a studious nature — can often be found in the library — a good worker for our class book — will fly high some day.

JEFFREY S. YATES

"Fun is a bit of good and a great deal of mischief."

Conservation Club 2, 3, 4; Rifle Club
3; Chefs' Club 2; Dramatic Club 4;
Fashion Show 3.

Likes to race with his "Hydroplane" — candidate for night hawk — fond of basketball and baseball — taste runs to brunettes — hopes to become a state policeman.

URSULA NORTHROP

"She sets her own pace."

A transfer from Florida — her favorites are boating swimming, basketball, and badminton — friends enjoy her P. J. parties — good luck as a nurse.

ALFRED BRUCE LUCZYNSKI

*"What he greatly thought,
he nobly expressed."*

Dramatic Club 4.

Moved from East Hartford in senior year — chemistry is such a debatable subject — shows great promise in field of writing.

Alphabet

- A is for Aston, whom we know as Deacon,
For a warmer uniform he kept seekin'.
- B is for Barry, a very cheerful lass,
She loves to play pranks while sitting in a class.
- B is for Bayette, our princess so fine,
She gave many a cheer on the fifty-yard line.
- B is for Bayles, a Thunderbird fan,
She uses her sunlamp for a weekly tan.
- B is for Beaudin, who's a hit with the gals,
They all want to date him, but he treats them like pals.
- B is for Becker, who must like gravy,
For he'll get plenty when he joins the Navy.
- B is for Beder, who, we've heard tell,
Can think of better things than learning to spell.
- B is for Bidstrup, who tries to no avail,
To get rid of his nickname "Shirt Tail."
- B is for Bronson, who likes to tee off,
Not at his friends, but at his golf.
- B is for Brown, whom we called Eileen,
Likes bangs and "Bobs," if you know what we mean.
- B is for Brown, it's Sandy we mean,
As a teacher of math, she'll really be keen.
- B is for Buxton, happy-go lucky,
To all her friends she's known as "Bucky."
- C is for Cadwell, we call him Frank,
When he looked at his homework, his heart really sank.
- C is for Cake, who has a very keen mind,
But in a hundred-yard dash, he'd be far behind.
- C is for Calder, who likes a party,
Her sense of humor is always quite hearty.
- C is for Carlina, Sandy is her name,
Lake Garda is where she hunts her game.
- C is for Carroccia, happy is this young man,
Because he usually has more than one lady fan.
- C is for Cierski, whose clothes are the "Mostest," She's the type who'll make a good hostess.
- C is for Codrey, who comes to class,
In a red jacket and with a pass.
- C is for Cook, who sometimes drives fast,
Goodness, Tony, that was Mr. Moore you just passed.
- C is for Cross, one of our nicest lasses,
But when in a hurry, she's slow as molasses.
- C is for Crowe, from Burlington he hails,
In maintaining silence, he never fails.
- C is for Cyr, football's his game,
By his spirit, his size he overcame.
- D is for Dabkowski, with nice wavy hair,
With his romantic bass, a lady he'll snare.
- D is for Daggett, our hero Harry,
Around the "Wall" he likes to tarry.
- D is for Deming, who catches the eye,
She is still faithful to our Alumni.
- D is for Derick, who's no sad sack,
Driving with girls in his white Cadillac.
- D is for Dobratz, a new boy is Tim,
Cross-country is a real sport to him.
- D is for Drew, David by name,
Without him the kitchen won't be the same.
- D is for Drown, a hockey player never beaten,
Her favorite pastimes, talking and "Eaton."
- D is for Dymkowski, late hours he keeps,
The next day in study for an hour he sleeps.
- E is for Ege, who is quite wise,
His motto, "Early to bed, early to rise."
- E is for Ellsworth, a very fair lass,
She played with a kitten in P. O. D. Class.
- E is for Erha, who everyone knows,
Never worries about outgrowing his clothes.
- E is for Erickson, a cute little lass,
Who always manages to skip a class.
- E is for Erickson, we call him Bob,
Fires, not girls, make his heart throb.

- E is for Erkson, Stuart is his name,
His set of cleats has won him fame.
- E is for Erkson, popular as the come,
Emptying ash trays keeps her on the run.
- F is for Ferola, better known as Andy,
Fair words with girls he's known not to bandy.
- F is for Fisher, sometimes called "Fish," He'll cast a glance at every good looking "dish."
- F is for Flanagan, Noreen's the one,
Who is willing to work and ready for fun.
- F is for Flynn, who can often get a pass,
Down at the office to admit him to class.
- F is for Fradette, likeable "Mo,"
He works at Three Sons; he likes the dough.
- G is for Gaura with short curly hair,
He and Ege make a steady pair.
- G is for Geahigan, who writes good verse,
On lilies, ladies, and an undertaker's hearse.
- G is for Gosselin, who likes to bop,
When she gets going, she just can't stop.
- G is for Gresh, who often embarks,
At the 2:10 bell with a girl named Sparks.
- G is for Grevalsky, who plays a fife,
She gets a merry tune out of life.
- G is for Griffin, so innocent looking,
That the teachers can never tell what he's cooking.
- G is for Grocki, who walks rather slow,
He'll make some girl a happy beau.
- G is for Grocki, with her hands in the air,
Shouting at the Senor, "That isn't fair."
- G is for Guglietta, who made a hit as "Willie,"
He is always chasing many a filly.
- H is for Habernak, who's fair of face,
Her smile and manner cannot be replaced.
- H is for Harden, a gentleman true,
Those "Seven Little Girls" he'd like to woo.
- H is for Harris, a girl who likes sports,
When Miss Hunt's around, Anna never lacks retorts.
- H is for Heffernan, with freckles not few,
When embarrassed, she turns a cherry red hue.
- H is for Hein, who likes Navy men,
Often she's seen with one of them.
- H is for Hollinger, with a future scheme,
Of working in an office on an I.B.M. machine.
- H is for Hunter, who joined us this year,
On her way to class, she runs like a deer.
- H is for Hurley, always on the go,
She doesn't drive fast, she just flies low.
- J is for Janson, our happy Swede,
With her good marks, she's bound to succeed.
- J is for Jaquith, often seen with Arlene,
The two of them together make quite a team.
- J is for Jendrejcek, whose convertible car,
Taxies the girl near and far.
- J is for Johnson, who sees in the Navy,
An interesting guy and a future, maybe.
- J is for Jones who is quiet and small,
When it comes to personality, she's nine feet tall.
- J is for Joyce, who took in the cash,
That you pay every day for soup and hash.
- J is for Judd, who goes out for track,
But for helping girls, he won't break his back.
- K is for Kane, a female thriller,
Lovingly called by his classmates, "killer."
- K is for Keevers, who's fond of hookey,
When she sees a boy, she does always "lookey."
- K is for Koprusak, who likes a dark nook,
He'll get his girl there by hook or crook.
- K is for Krish, who likes to swim,
If he keeps that up, he's bound to be trim.
- L is for Laird, who walks to Garden Heights,
Not because he just wants to see the sites.

L is for Larkin, a real sharp blonde,
Of parties and dancing she's most fond.

L is for Latko, Sophie's her name,
To her gentle manner, we give acclaim.

L is for Lawrence, with such a shy grin,
Can you imagine him sticking a girl with a pin?

L is for Lee, who'd cause quite a stir,
If he came to a dance with a cute little her.

L is for Levandowski, whom we call Rose,
There's plenty of fun and gaiety wherever she goes.

L is for Luczynski, who'd like to blow up the lab,
And see the instructor laid out on a slab

M is for Mahannah, who drives a red car,
He'll sing to his love someday with a guitar.

M is for Marks, who has all kinds of speeds,
When we ride with her, we all say our beads.

M is for Marshall, who's planted many a shrub,
In the good interest of our Conservation Club.

M is for Matthews, with fashion sense keen,
She looks like a model out of "Seventeen."

M is for McKissick, who is always in style,
She greets everyone with a great big smile.

M is for McMahon, who will do a great deed,
For a friend and foe if they are in need.

M is for Meyers, who is supporting a band,
A ring on her third finger left hand.

M is for Miller, with hair so red,
He'd read Shakespeare if Will weren't dead.

M is for Moore, with a boy friend steady,
When he pops the question, boy, will she be ready!

M is for Moore, who is inclined to be late,
She'd rather be in detention than out on a date.

M is for Munterich, she's Georgene, too,
It surely is confusing to call one and get two.

N is for Niederer, who works with the best,
She's saving her pennies to feather her nest.

N is for Niedmann, who always cries,
"Jim, you're sitting on my French fries."

N is for Noe, whose nickname is Bunny,
With that blond streak, she's quite a cute honey.

N is for Northrop, whose words are few,
From all reports, she can make a good stew.

P is for Pascus, whose first name is Penny,
From All-State Chorus her friends are many.

P is for Peterson, who is never at a loss,
Sitting in the closet writing to Moss.

P is for Pollock, always on the go,
Never without a new chapeau.

R is for Repperger, calm and collected,
She's more of a live wire than we expected.

R is for Riccardo, our future bridegroom,
We can picture him now with apron and broom.

R is for Robotham, a boy with red hair,
He prefers a blue Ford to going shank's mare.

R is for Rosati, who does her work well,
When she plays basketball, all the fans yell.

R is for Routhier, to work she's not averse,
So obliging, she'd even drive a hearse.

R is for Royko, who likes to knit,
Aims at her subjects and boy, does she hit!

R is for Rulf, who makes so little noise,
Buying shoes is one of her greatest joys.

S is for Scheidel, who's not very brief,
"Have voice, will travel" is her belief.

S is for Scheidel, who likes to make changes,
Careful, Pat, or you'll be alone on the ranges.

S is for Sekula, Stan really writes quite a theme,
He's always raving about the free movies he's seen.

S is for Sekula, who has dressed many a chick,
As their beautiful feathers from them he did pick.

S is for Shirley, who lives near the school,
West Hill Pond is where she keeps cool.

S is for Smith who can't seem to remember,
What happened to the books he got in September.

S is for Smolen, who is quite a pitcher,
When he doesn't like a girl, he's apt to ditch her.

S is for Snow, who has many a joke,
Upon hearing them, you want to give him a poke.

S is for Sperry, with hair just like fire,
When there's fun to be had, she's no flat tire.

S is for Stearns, a charmer of women,
Among all of his friends, he holds a blue ribbon.

S is for Stewart, who works all the lights,
And makes big successes of our first nights.

S is for Stockwell, from bumper to bumper,
You'll never find a bug like Bart's puddle jumper

S is for Szydlo, so gay and charming,
Some of her jokes are quite alarming

T is for Terwilliger, plays cards does she,
When she gets a "Jack" she smiles with glee.

T is for Tharau, a mechanic at heart.
Give him a fire engine, and he'll take it apart.

T is for Thistlewaite, Helen who is quiet,
What would happen if she went on a diet.

T is for Tibbetts, who likes to take walks,
Especially during P. O. D. talks.

T is for Timbrell, who was a papoose,
But in the end he did vamoose.

V is for Veresoni, who for chemistry has no love,
He prefers to spend time with some turtle dove.

V is for Vibert, who is quite a tease,
If he gets a girl in a corner, he'll give her a squeeze.

V is for Vontell, who is on the beam,
She's on every varsity team.

W is for Washburn, who used to be quite shy,
But now, she's developed a wink in that eye.

W is far Waters, who is often in bandages,
Yet to do well in basketball he manages.

W is for Westerberg, who has a mind so keen,
Flirting with boys, she has quite a routine.

W is for Whitney, who's fond of a certain season,
As if we all didn't know the reason.

W is for Wiellette, our shutter bug friend,
If you want good pictures, for Richard do send.

W is for Wilbur, who walks hand in hand,
Which brings from the teachers a good reprimand.

W is for Wilusz, who is Stan the man,
Barefoot boy with coat of tan.

W is for Winalski, who likes ice cream,
He is often found by a fishing stream.

W is for Wolfe, quiet in class,
But when with the girls she's a jovial lass.

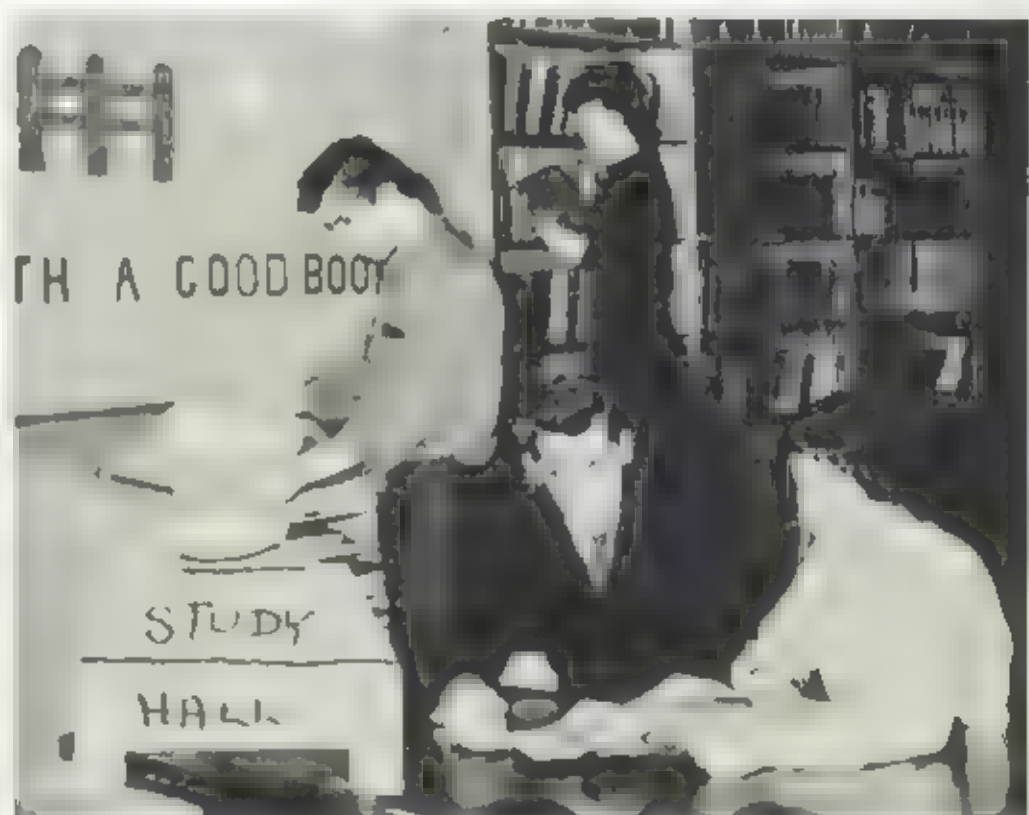

W is for Wright with a curly head of hair,
He carries the "Times" from here to there.

Y is for Yates, whose whole life features,
His obvious efforts to outwit the teachers.

School Song

Down in the valley of Connecticut,
There is a school most fine;
We have some teams and some good cheers
And we have some dear old times.
So let us sing our song
To the School we love,
And let us sing our praises
To make our spirit strong.

CHORUS

For, dear Farmington High School
We'll be true to thee;
Maroon and Gray our colors,
May they always float to the sky,
So praise our great victories,
And let us always say,
That as we ever will be loyal,
We'll be to thee, Farmington High.
